Please amend the specification as follows:

Please replace paragraph [0027] with the following amended paragraph:

The present invention relates to methods and system for [0027] distributing image capture devices, such as cameras, and images, including digital images and prints. One embodiment of the present invention (the system which is shown in Figure 13) advantageously provides cameras 5, such as digital cameras or film cameras, to consumers 10 for free or at a reduced or discounted cost. A retail camera provider 15, a camera kiosk 20, an image print house/developer/photofinisher 25, print order taker 50, a camera manufacturer 30 or other entity (hereinafter referred to as camera provider) may provide the camera 5. The consumer 10 is in communication with the camera providers through a contractual interface 13 an electronic network 40. The contractual interface 13-an electronic network 40 provides a communication channel through which one of the camera providers that is communicating with the consumer 10 offers the camera 5 free or at a reduced or discounted cost for a commitment that a certain number of image reproduction or prints 35 are to be purchased by the consumer 10 and/or by others associated with the consumer 10.

Please replace paragraph [0027.1] with the following amended paragraph:

[0027.1] The contract may be generated as a face to face encounter between the consumer 10 and the retail camera provider 15. The contract may generated as a be a toll free telephone conversation between the consumer 10 and a fulfillment house or telecommunications operator that is under the auspices of the retail camera provider 15, the print order taker, 50, the camera manufacturer or the print house 25. The conversation may be over an electronic network 40 such as a global digital communication system (internet). The contract could result from a form filled out in a kiosk made available by the camera provider. Additionally, the contract could be generated through a catalog or a direct mailing. These are examples of some of the ways that one could generate the contract between the consumer 10 and the camera provider.

Please replace paragraph [0027.2] with the following amended paragraph:

[0027.2] The consumer 10 makes a commitment to purchase a certain number of image reproduction or prints 35 for which the camera provider commits to the give the camera 5 for free or to sell of the camera 5 reduced or at a discounted cost. A contract 12 is created and the camera is transferred from the camera provider to the consumer 10 through the contractual interface 13. The contract 12 may define the period during which the reprints must be purchased and allow persons associated with the consumer eg. friends or family 10 to also purchase reprints and receive credit under the commitment.

Please replace paragraph [0028] with the following amended paragraph:

In one embodiment, a consumer 10 is provided with a digital [0028] camera 5 at a discounted price in exchange for a commitment to purchase a certain number of prints 35 or otherwise spend a certain amount of money with the camera provider, where the discount may range up to 100% of the camera price, so that the camera is "free." The contract 12 as created through the contractual interface 13 between the consumer 10 and the camera provider may include a commitment to purchase the prints over a predetermined amount of time. The discount may be increased in exchange for a commitment 12 to buy an increased number of prints 35. Thus, for example, if a large enough commitment is made, the camera 5 may be given to the consumer 10 with no up-front payment.

Please replace paragraph [0033] with the following amended paragraph:

In one embodiment, the consumer can specify which print house or [0033] 15 vendor 25 should be used to provide the prints 35. Optionally, the print house 25 selection may be restricted to those listed by the camera provider and defined within the contract 12 as created through the contractual interface 13 between the consumer 10 and the camera provider. A discount for prints may be offered when the consumer 10 20 selects certain designated or eligible print houses 25. In one embodiment, the consumer 10 may elect, by activating an appropriate Web page link or the like in communication with a consumer's personal computer 45 through the network 40, to have the print order taker 50 select the print house 25 which will result in the lowest cost per print. Further, for an additional fee, the consumer 10 may optionally select a print house 25 not listed by the camera provider 15. The additional fee may be a fiat fee for an entire order and/or a fee per print ordered.

Please replace paragraph [0050] with the following amended paragraph:

To further ensure that the consumer meets his or her commitment as defined in the contract 12 to order a certain number of reproductions, the consumer may be required to provide through the contractual interface.

13-a credit card and/or to provide authorization to charge the credit card or other financial instrument associated with the consumer a selected amount should the consumer fail to fulfill the commitment, before providing the camera 5. Alternatively, the consumer may optionally prepay the cost of the committed to reproductions. Thus, for example, if the consumer has agreed to purchase 500 prints within a year at a cost of 30¢ a print, the consumer can prepay $150, and so does not have to be concerned about meeting any order commitments 12.

Please replace paragraph [0054] with the following amended paragraph:

In addition, to help subsidize the cost of the camera 5 and/or prints [0054] 35 to consumers 10 and to increase the income to the image reproduction companies 25, camera provider 15, and/or other related entities 20, advertising supplied by an advertising provider 60, such as promotional offers or discount coupons, may be provided with prints 35 or other forms of image reproduction delivered to consumers 10. The advertising provider 60 is in communication with the consumer database 27 to determine appropriate advertisements to be delivered to the consumer 10. The advertising may be printed on the image reproduction, such as on the front or back of prints or on a border around the image reproduction, or may be otherwise associated or attached on the image reproduction. For example, in one embodiment, an advertisement or coupon may be provided as a tear-off or otherwise separable attachment to a hard copy print 35. If the image reproduction is printed on an item of clothing, such as a tee shirt, or on a cup, a corresponding advertisement may likewise be printed or, the clothing or cup. For electronic images viewable on a networked display, the advertisements or coupons may include a link to the Web site of the sponsor of the advertisement or coupon. The advertisement may be animated to further call viewers' attention to the advertisement.
